"Safe Harbor" Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

Certain statements contained in this Form 8-K and Exhibit 99.1 are "forward-looking statements" intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties. Actual results and trends may differ materially from historical or anticipated results depending on a variety of factors, including but not limited to risks and uncertainties relating to the following: (1) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the transaction; (2) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against the Company and others regarding the transaction; (3) the inability to complete a transaction due to the failure to satisfy conditions to the transaction; and (4) risks that the proposed transaction disrupts current plans and operations and the potential difficulties in employee retention as a result of announcing the transaction.

For a discussion of the risk factors that could affect the Company's financial performance, see Part I, Item 1A. "Risk Factors" and Part II, Item 7."Management's Discussion and Analysis of Results of Operations and Financial Condition" in the Company's most recent Form 10-K, filed on February 27, 2013.

The forward-looking statements included in this Form 8-K and Exhibit 99.1 are made only as of the respective dates thereof, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update the forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.
